

White Paper on EMERGE New Mexico After the Primary Election

By Leanna Derrick, Research Analyst

Date: June 14, 2024

New Mexico is #1 in Emerge alumnae per capita and #2 state in pursuit to fulfill Emerge America's national initiatives for their Agenda 2035. New Mexico is their model state and the example for their directives that other state affiliates will follow.

Commentary

The Emerge New Mexico had sweeping victories in the Primary.

15/19 won their primary. 78%. EMERGE boasts a 70% win record.

If this stands into the General election then we can expect 70% of their candidates to win their contests.

2022 and 2023, Emerge New Mexico candidate met this goal.

Losses-

Going into General Election in County seats - 1 loss, 9 wins including 3 county clerks

State Senate - 2 losses

State Representatives - 2 losses

Election 2024 PLAN

- Primaried out conservative Democrats both male and female candidates targeting incumbents who voted against SB3 Paid Family Leave Act which included incumbents/2 Hispanic men.
Ambrose Castellano (D) House Dist 70
Harry Garcia (D) House Dist 69
- Daniel Ivey-Soto (D) Senate Dist 15 Daniel Ivey-Soto was primaried due to the high number of Emerge alumnae orchestrating a public relations campaign against him.
- NM House is currently 65% Democrat. A Supermajority in the House of Representatives is 66%
- Attempt a 75% woman majority (need data on how many women are going to general, this data will be available as soon as the SoS certifies the Primary election).
- To increase county commissioners and maintain their County Clerks in Bernalillo, Dona Ana, and Santa Fe.

State Senate statewide – EMERGE is in 9 /42 contests = 21%

2/9 senate seats are unopposed/no contest

3/9 are incumbents

State Representative statewide – EMERGE is in 29 /70 contests= 41%

In Bernalillo County-14 State Representative contests within Bernalillo County. 6 are unopposed/no contest

9 contests will need support/help to stop Emerge alumnae taking more seats

15 Emerge are running opposed statewide and will be our next legislators (Page 3)

15/70 contests = 20% off the bat.

14/70 total contested races across the state total will go to General and will need support/help to stop Emerge alumnae taking more seats
